Recommendation: "DTR redesignate his Overseas Training Staff to better reflect its expanding function as a clearing house for training doctrine; that its role as a depository and an editorial and coordination staff be negotiated with the Directorates and publicized, including preparation and dissemination of bibliographies under the various security limitations that may apply."

I concur with the comment of the Director of Training, which is as follows:

"I recommend that the Overseas Training Branch be redesignated as the Operations Training Support Branch with a primary responsibility for training support and guidance to 25X4A6a, operational training activities, including the [REDACTED] and a secondary function for provision of specialized, training materials support to other 25X1A6a Operations School branches [REDACTED]. It is agreed that we must ensure appropriate awareness in the Clandestine Services of the existence of useful training materials, but it would be well not to overstate the present capabilities of this Branch. The Branch is functioning very effectively and producing at top capacity. Only by enlarging its T/O and by assigning additional, qualified personnel capable of a high standard of individual work can its functions and scope be expanded. At the same time, actions have been and are being taken to ensure that operating branches of the Clandestine Services are fully cognizant of the nature and scope of services available."
